East Providence to open city's first splash pad park

EAST PROVIDENCE, RI: City of East Providence officials will host a ribbon cutting to officially open East Providence's first-ever splash pad.

WHO:

- Mayor Bob DaSilva, City of East Providence
- Rhode Island DEM Representatives
- John Martin, Associate State Director, AARP
- East Providence City Councilors
- Onna Moniz-John
- East Providence DPW and Planning officials
- Local families

WHAT: The 30' X 30' splash pad, installed by O'Brien & Sons and supported through RIDEM grant dollars and city funds, will officially open to the public. Benches, game tables and picnic tables were also installed thanks to an AARP Community Challenge Grant Program.

WHEN: Friday, June 28, 2019 @ noon

WHERE: Onna Moniz-John Neighborhood Park/Central Avenue Playground (located between Central Avenue and McCausland Avenue, East Providence). The splash pad will be located on the Central Avenue side of the park.
