

Mattresses & Box Springs Pick up or Drop off information for East Providence Residents Only.

Mattress and/or box spring, two pieces or one set (king or queen mattress with split box spring) is considered one set, per household are collected on scheduled Saturday's by appointment only. Fee for curbside collection is $25 each piece or $50 for a set. Residents can schedule a pick-up by submitting a service request or calling the Recycling Office at 401-435-7701. Mattress collections can be scheduled during the months of March through December. No collections in January and February.

Free mattress and box spring drop offs at the Public Works Complex at 60 Commercial Way, from 9 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. or until the truck is full. These free drop offs are only on scheduled Saturday's during the months of March through December. Please call the office for schedule or check the website for updates. Mattresses can also be dropped off at Rhode Island Resource Recovery throughout the year at 60 Shun Pike in Johnston at no fee, as long as mattress is not torn or damaged it can be recycled follow signs for the small vehicle drop off area, call 942-1430 for more information.