

Has your East Providence business been impacted by the Washington Bridge closure? Please fill out the form below to provide documentation of any negative economic impact and/or losses due to the closure. The information will be provided to Rhode Island Commerce should any funding/financial assistance become available to support your business. Please document all losses and how you have been negatively impacted by the Dec. 11, 2023 closure and keep record of it (accounting/receipts).