TAXPAYER INFORMATION ABOUT APPEAL PROCEDURE

REASON FOR AN APPEAL. It is the intent of the General Assembly to ensure that all taxpayers in Rhode Island are treated fairly. Ensuring that taxpayers are treated fairly begins where cities and town meet defined standards related to assessing property values. All properties should be assessed in a uniform manner, and properties of equal value should be assessed the same.

TO DISPUTE YOUR VALUATION OR ASSESSMENT or correct any other billing problem or error that caused your tax bill to be higher than it should be, you must apply for an abatement within ninety (90) days of the date the first tax payment is due (the last day to apply will be October 1st).

YOU MAY APPLY FOR AN ABATEMENT IF YOU FEEL YOUR PROPERTY IS: (1) overvalued (assessed value is more than the current market value as of December 31st) for any reason, including clerical and data processing errors (2) disproportionately assessed in comparison with similar properties (3) classified incorrectly as either; residential, commercial, industrial, farm, forest or open space (4) Illegally taxed due to the fact that the property in question should be either partially or fully exempt (5) modified from its condition from the time of the last update or revaluation.

WHO MAY FILE AN APPLICATION: You may file an application if you are; (1) the assessed, or subsequent (acquired title after December 31st) owner of the property (2) the owner's administrator, or executor (3) a tenant (or group of tenants) of the real estate paying rent there from, and under obligations to pay more than one-half of the taxes thereon (4) a person owning, or having an interest in, or possession of the property (5) a mortgagee, if the assessed owner has not applied. In all cases, you must pay the assessed tax, when due, before you can file.

WHEN AND WHERE APPLICATION MUST BE FILED: Your application must be filed in the East Providence Tax Assessor's Office within ninety (90) days of the date the first tax payment is due (last day to apply will be October 1st). These deadlines cannot be extended or waived by the Tax Assessor for any reason. If your application is not filed on time, you lose all rights to a possible abatement and the Tax Assessor cannot, by law, grant you an abatement. An application is filed when received by the East Providence Tax Assessor's Office. (RI 44-5-26)

PAYMENT OF TAX: Filing an application does not stay the collection of your taxes. In all cases, you must pay the tax, when due, to appeal the Tax Assessor's assessment of your property. Failure to pay the assessed tax, when due, may subject you to interest charges and eventually to collection action. To avoid any loss of rights, or additional charges, you should pay the assessed tax, when due. If an abatement is granted and you have already paid the entire year's tax, you will receive a refund of any overpayment.

FILING AN ACCOUNT: R.I. General Law section 44-5-15 requires the annual filing of a true and exact account of all ratable estate owned, or possessed, by every person and corporate body. The time frame to file said form is between December 31st and January 31st. If you wish to file for an extension, it must also be filed between December 31st and January 31st. Failure to file a true and full account, within the prescribed time frame, eliminates the right to appeal to the Rhode Island Superior Court, subject to the exceptions provided in Rhode Island General Law Section 44-5-26(b). No amended returns will be accepted after March 15th. Such notice of your intention to file for an extension must be sent by certified mail, postage prepaid, postmarked no later than twelve o'clock (12:00) midnight of the last filing day, (January 31st). No extensions beyond March 15th can be granted. The form for filing a true and exact account may be obtained from the East Providence Tax Assessor's Office.

TAX ASSESSOR'S DISPOSITION: Upon applying for a reduction in assessment, you may be asked to provide the East Providence Tax Assessor's Office with further written information about the property, and to permit the Assessor and/or his/her representatives to inspect the property in question. Failure to provide the requested information, and/or permit an inspection of the property, within thirty (30) days of the request, may result in the loss of your appeal rights.

APPEALING THE DECISION OF THE TAX ASSESSOR: The Tax Assessor shall have forty-five (45) days to review the appeal, render a decision, and notify the taxpayer of the decision. The taxpayer, if still aggrieved, may appeal that decision to the East Providence Tax Board of Review. Appeals to the East Providence Tax Board of Review must be filed within thirty (30) days of the Tax Assessor's decision. In the event that the Tax Assessor does not render a decision (by the expiration of the prescribed forty-five (45) day review period) the taxpayer may then appeal (within ninety (90) days of the expiration of the prescribed forty five (45) day Tax Assessor's review period) his/her assessment to the East Providence Tax Board of Review.
